Ronald B. Kowalczyk

EXPERIENCE

2002 - Present Kowalczyk Law Offices, Saint Charles, Illinois

Partner ó Practice concentrates in complex litigation for plaintiffs and defendants in many business areas, including corporate law, commercial contracts, labor and employment, intellectual property, and antitrust law with extensive experience with startup companies including in the areas of formation, fundraising, contract negotiations, licensing, compensation, governance, and intellectual property protection.

2016 ó Present Kelleher & Buckley, LLC, Barrington, Illinois

Of Counsel and Intellectual Property Practice Group Leader ó Re teue v fit ou clients in intellectual property and employment matters.

2015 6 Present Illinois Institute of Technology, Stuart School of Business, Chicago, Illinois

Adjunct Instructor 6 Teach Business Law for Entrepreneurs in the Modern Global Economy which covers various areas of law including basic contract law, corporate law, and intellectual property law.

2007 ó Present The Sweetest Land, A Documentary Film, Hartford, Connecticut

Film Producer ó Oversee major business and social action aspects of the film from pre- to post-production; e use she fi su fiuca hea sh b{ useceusfw { use wi g gta vfw di g ft she teusigi wu LEF F w davi and the Tribeca Film Institute; organize and facilitate social action initiatives meetings with United States Senators as well as major researchers at Harvard Law School and Harvard School of Public Health on issues of violence prevention and policy advancement; film screened at the United Nations ó Nexus Global Youth Summit, United States Congressional Briefing, Centers For Disease Control and Prevention, Brigham and W e gu H u iva, Harvard School of Public Health and Harvard Law School.

2013 - Present North Central College, Naperville, Illinois

Lecturer/Head Coach ó Teach Trial Advocacy in the Political Science Department and coach the award winning mock trial team; responsibilities include educating students on courtroom procedure, how to plan, draft and present opening statements, direct examinations, cross examinations, and closing arguments, as well as how to intelligently argue objections.

Ay atded a dhuved vhe A etica M c Ttia Auu ciavi øu O e i g R w d Cha i uhi T wt a e v

2002 ó 2013 Elgin Community College, Elgin, Illinois

Associate Professor and Paralegal Department Instructional Coordinator ó Coordinated the development

Bm53W 612